

<https://artsy.net/ibett-yanez>

Ibett Yanez

Ibett Yanez is the Director of the de la Cruz Collection Contemporary Art Space in Miami, Florida. She has helped in furthering all aspects of the de la Cruz Collection's mission, from its educational programming and its annual exhibitions.

Miami, Florida – www.delacruzcollection.org

My Highlights from Art Basel in Miami Beach, 2013

Ibett Yanez

Considering the vast variety of works being shown at Art Basel, I decided to stray from focusing on a specific thematic group of works and to select individual works which appeal to my sensibilities about art. There will always be certain artists I'm drawn to (Tom Burr, Assume Vivid Astro Focus, Nathan Hylden), many of which are interested in the process of making, allowing room for humor and error to be exposed in the end result. I'm interested in artists who are not afraid to experiment, be it through painting, photography or new media, but who are aware of the time they are living in—using themselves as filter. I find that I also have a tendency to be drawn to works which show an interest in form and are judicious in their use of color. This was a great opportunity to research new artists, as well as view some pieces by artist I already love.

Adam Helms | Zombie (Mnemosyne), 2013
Almine Rech

assume vivid astro focus from the series "Abusada São Paulo", 2013
Casa Triângulo

My Selection:

Adam Helms, Zombie (Mnemosyne), 2013, at Almine Reich
Assume Vivid Astro Focus, from the series “Abusada São Paulo”, 2013, at Casa Triângulo

Tom Burr, A Conversation Card, 2013, at Bortolami

Jenny Holzer, At Times It May be Necessary, 2012-2013, at Cheim & Read

Julia Wachtel, ACv2.4, 2012, at Elizabeth Dee

Isa Genzken, Weltempfänger (World Receiver), 1998, at Galerie Buchholz

Michael Krebber, Untitled, 1995, at Galerie Buchholz

David Shrigley, Untitled (Don't look at me), 2013, at Galleri Nicolai Wallner

Nathan Hylden, Untitled, 2013, at Johann König

Tom Burr
A Conversation Card, 2013
Bortolami

Jenny Holzer
At Times It May be Necessary, 2012-2013
Cheim & Read

Julia Wachtel
ACv2.4, 2012
Elizabeth Dee

Isa Genzken
Weltempfänger (World Receiver), 1998
Galerie Buchholz

Michael Krebber
Untitled, 1995
Galerie Buchholz

David Shrigley
Untitled (Don't look at me), 2013
Galleri Nicolai Wallner

Nathan Hylden
Untitled, 2013
Johann König